

Doris V. Medina Rosa

B2 Fifth Street Urb. Terranova Guaynabo, P.R. 00969

Tel. 787-789-3249 Cell. 787-397-3723

E-mail: dvmdn@hotmail.com

Objective

To obtain a research opportunity in which I learn more about the transportation area in Puerto Rico and abroad, as well as gain research skills and work experience.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering – Fifth year 2000-present
University of Puerto Rico. Mayagüez Campus
Expected Graduation Date May 2005
Cumulative GPA: 3.12 Major GPA: 3.43

High School Degree, Honors 2000
American Military Academy, Guaynabo P.R.
President of Student Council
National Leadership Camp, New York

Special Accomplishments

Certificate of Merit from the College Board
Advanced Placement Program
Member of the National Honor Society

Professional Organizations

License from the Occupational Security and Health Administration in Construction
Member of the American Society of Civil Engineers – Concrete Canoe Team Captain
Member of the Institute of Transportation Engineers
Member of the “Colegio de Ingenieros y Agrimensores de Puerto Rico”

Related Experience

Undergraduate Summer Internship in Transportation, 2003
University of Texas at Austin
Research on Load Zone Bridges

Participant in Annual Concrete Cylinder Competitions 2003
Sponsored by the Association of General Contractors, Mayagüez P.R.

Job Experience

Traffic Counts Coordinator –University of Puerto Rico – Study of traffic flow in diverse intersections in the west of Puerto Rico, as well as supervise other counters.

Assistant Manager – Impressions Shoes – Responsible for customer service, running the store, opening and closing, receiving and arranging new merchandise, and general duties.

Skills and Capabilities

Fully Bilingual in English and Spanish, excellent oral and written skills
Computer Literate, Microsoft Office environment, Internet research, Microsoft Project
Excellent interpersonal and communication skills as well as customer service skills
Excellent organization skills and ability to work with minimum supervision
Programming experience with Visual Basic and FORTRAN